INVITATION AND GREETINGS FROM CHANDIGARH-THE BEAUTIFUL CITY OF INDIA

Dear Colleagues,

Worldwide neuroses are increasing, headed by depression, numerous fears and psychosomatic complaints. But likewise the treatments of psychiatric illnesses and prophylaxis in psychosocial conflict constellations have developed into important scopes of work for psychotherapists. Psychotherapy is experiencing a strong fresh impetus all over the world, as it has reached a level of development that predestines it for the treatment of a large number of emotional disturbances.

You will be glad to know that the Asian Federation for Psychotherapy has decided to organize its 5th International Conference at Chandigarh-The beautiful city of India from 5-8 January 2010. Chandigarh is one of the very well planned beautiful City -250 Km from Delhi towards north India. It is very well connected with road, train and domestic airline.

It is hoped that this conference will encourage some of the Eastern and western psychologists to develop new and more effective integrated methods of psychotherapy.

You along with your colleagues are invited for this prestigious conference and circulate the information among your colleagues/ students/Research scholars and staff and encourage them for the maximum participation in this conference. Hope your moral support, participation and contribution for this prestigious event will be of great help in spreading the message of Psychotherapy and Yoga for Human Health and Happiness and Peace among the masses all over the world.

For further information or any question regarding conference, please contact at the Conference Office's address/phone or email.

Waiting for your earliest response, cooperation and participation.
